where there is plenty of time to explore the narrow twisting street or take a walk along the pier for a cuppa in the Pavilion Theatre. In the afternoon we take a 10-mile round trip on the north Norfolk Railway. This heritage railway is known as the 'Poppy Line', a description given to the railway because of the many fields of poppies the line passes through.

Day 4 - Holkham Hall and the Thursford Collection. Visit the magnificent Holkham Hall, an 18th Century country house constructed in the Palladian style. Then travel to the Thursford Collection near Fakenham, the world's largest collection of steam engines and organs in a unique location.

Day 5 - After breakfast start your journey home.

ITINERARY:

Day 1 - Travel to hotel (Holiday Inn, Norwich North).

Day 2 - This morning we travel to Sandringham House, the much-loved country retreat of the Queen. A highlight is the opportunity to see the actual rooms where the Queen spends time when she is in residence. We then travel the short distance to Norfolk Lavender, famous for its gardens, oil distillery, national lavender collection and herb garden.

Day 3 - The 'Poppy Line', today we head to the picturesque north Norfolk coast. Our first stop is the bustling seaside town and holiday resort of Cromer
